

PET ENGINEERING COLLEGE

Student's Feed Back

Department Name :
Staff Name :
Subject Code / Name :
Semester :

Section :

Assessment Period :
Assessment Questions	Excellent (5)	Very Good (4)	Good (3)	Fair (2)	Satisfactory (1)
The Instructor's preparation for each class
The Instructor's command of subject matter
The Instructor's use of class time
The Instructor's way of summarizing / emphasizing important points in class
The Instructor's ability to make clear and understandable presentations
The Instructor's use of challenging questions or problems
The Instructor's helpfulness and responsiveness to students
The Instructor's concern for students
The availability of extra help for this class
The instructor's willingness to listen to students questions and opinions
The information given to the students about how they would be graded
The clarity of exam questions
The exam's coverage of important aspect of the course
The instructor's comments on assignments / exams
Laboratory exercises for understanding important course concepts
Case studies simulation or role playing
The instructor's use of computers as aids in instruction
	The Instructor's preparation for each class  The Instructor's use of class time  The Instructor's way of summarizing / emphasizing important points in class  The Instructor's ability to make clear and understandable presentations  The Instructor's command of spoken English (Language used in the course)  The Instructor's use of examples or illustration's to clarify course materials  The Instructor's use of challenging questions or problems  The Instructor's helpfulness and responsiveness to students  The Instructor's concern for students  The availability of extra help for this class  The instructor's willingness to listen to students questions and opinions	The Instructor's preparation for each class  The Instructor's command of subject matter  The Instructor's use of class time  The Instructor's way of summarizing / emphasizing important points in class  The Instructor's ability to make clear and understandable presentations  The Instructor's command of spoken English (Language used in the course)  The Instructor's use of examples or illustration's to clarify course materials  The Instructor's use of challenging questions or problems  The Instructor's helpfulness and responsiveness to students  The Instructor's concern for students  The availability of extra help for this class  The instructor's willingness to listen to students questions and opinions  The information given to the students about how they would be graded  The clarity of exam questions  The exam's coverage of important aspect of the course  The instructor's comments on assignments / exams  Problems or questions presented by the instructor for small group discussions  Laboratory exercises for understanding important course concepts  Case studies simulation or role playing	Assessment Questions  The Instructor's preparation for each class  The Instructor's command of subject matter  The Instructor's use of class time  The Instructor's way of summarizing / emphasizing important points in class  The Instructor's ability to make clear and understandable presentations  The Instructor's command of spoken English (Language used in the course)  The Instructor's use of examples or illustration's to clarify course materials  The Instructor's use of challenging questions or problems  The Instructor's helpfulness and responsiveness to students  The Instructor's concern for students  The availability of extra help for this class  The instructor's willingness to listen to students questions and opinions  The information given to the students about how they would be graded  The clarity of exam questions  The exam's coverage of important aspect of the course  The instructor's comments on assignments / exams  Problems or questions presented by the instructor for small group discussions  Laboratory exercises for understanding important course concepts  Case studies simulation or role playing	Assessment Questions (5) Good (4) (3)  The Instructor's preparation for each class  The Instructor's command of subject matter  The Instructor's use of class time  The Instructor's way of summarizing / emphasizing important points in class  The Instructor's ability to make clear and understandable presentations  The Instructor's command of spoken English (Language used in the course)  The Instructor's use of examples or illustration's to clarify course materials  The Instructor's use of challenging questions or problems  The Instructor's helpfulness and responsiveness to students  The Instructor's concern for students  The availability of extra help for this class  The instructor's willingness to listen to students questions and opinions  The information given to the students about how they would be graded  The clarity of exam questions  The exam's coverage of important aspect of the course  The instructor's comments on assignments / exams  Problems or questions presented by the instructor for small group discussions  Laboratory exercises for understanding important course concepts  Case studies simulation or role playing	Assessment Questions (5) Good (4) (3) (2)  The Instructor's preparation for each class  The Instructor's command of subject matter  The Instructor's use of class time  The Instructor's ability to make clear and understandable presentations  The Instructor's command of spoken English (Language used in the course)  The Instructor's use of examples or illustration's to clarify course materials  The Instructor's use of challenging questions or problems  The Instructor's use of challenging questions or problems  The Instructor's concern for students  The Instructor's concern for students  The availability of extra help for this class  The instructor's willingness to listen to students questions and opinions  The information given to the students about how they would be graded  The clarity of exam questions  The exam's coverage of important aspect of the course  The instructor's comments on assignments / exams  Problems or questions presented by the instructor for small group discussions  Laboratory exercises for understanding important course concepts  Case studies simulation or role playing